New York, Sept. 25 .- The speculative judgment on the Reading reorganization plan, as evidenced by the course of the stock and bonds in today's mar ket, is decidedly unfavorable. plan has been a fruitful subject of discussion on the street today, and while pretty general opinion that it will become operative, in view of the fact It is claimed by the Olcott-Earle interests that it will not be opposed by the Drexel-Morgan party. This latter claim is not generally accepted as being based on positive grounds.

At the opening of business on the stock exchange this morning the stock of Reading was offered for sale round amounts, houses with Philadelphia connections being the heaviest sellers, and the result was a break of 1% to 18% in the first quarter of an hour. The decline attracted buyers, whose purchases caused a rally to 1814 in the market in the next fifteen minutes, af-ter which very little trading was done in the shares, and the price was held unchanged up to midday. Early in the afternoon a rally to 19% was made, followed by renewed selling and a return to the low point of the morning. Only one sale of the stock was effected dur-

Chicago, Sept. 25 -- Wheat opened weak at from 541565414 for December, against at from 541,5154% for December, against 54% at the close yesterday. It had a further slight decline to 542,654% and then recovered until it was in demand at 54% about an hour from the closing.

Outs were extremely dull and the market was back again in its old rut. The feeling was easier early, May started ½ lower at 34%, shortly after 244,6545% as bid and then it sold off to 34%. At noon it had railied to 34%, closing at 34%.

The provision market was weak without qualification. Hog receipts were again light. The weakness near the close gave the seliers some advantage. The declines since yesterday on the January deliveries amount to 30c, in pork, 17% till lard and 15c, in ribs.
